The Republican City Convention Called.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

The Prohibitionists to Meet and Make Their Nominations To-Day—A Straight Ticket.

The political pot has commenced to boil with great vigor, and now on to the election on the 21st there will be no cessation of hostilities between the various factions of the Republican party, each of which is pressing forward some set of candidates. The Republican City Central Committee met last night at the Union League rooms, Capt. E. P. Johnson in the chair and a full representation present. The meeting was long and the conference as secret as possible, with two locked doors between it and the rest of the party, which was anxious to have a hand in the affair. Various dates for the primaries and convention were proposed, and it was finally decided to call the ward primaries for Saturday, the 16th instant, and the convention for Monday, the 18th. It was thought that this would make the time so short that the Citizens' Reform Executive Committee would not be able to endorse the candidates placed in nomination. Some fear was expressed that this might be done and all were in favor of cutting loose from the "long hairs." It was announced that 135 delegates would be in the Convention, and the appointment to the different wards was made, but it was decided for some reason not to make this public. The places holding the Ward primaries were not announced, as some of the committee had not selected quarters. An adjournment was therefore taken until Friday night when these minor details will be arranged.

A reporter of the HERALD has been in search for the last week of a once important and vigorous institution known as the Citizens' Reform Association. Before the last election it was believed to have a membership of several thousand people and to possess a monopoly of a large part of the virtue which is extant in this city. When the smoke of the municipal contest cleared away there was still enough of it to be found to cause it to be savagely scored by the leaders of the party which it had sought to befriend. Now, that a new struggle is about to be commenced, much curiosity has been felt among the political leaders as to whether this organization is still alive, and if so, which party is going to be hoodooed with its baleful assistance. The question will probably be solved in a few days. The committee, which in this extraordinary association does all the nominating and the political business for the entire constituency, will meet in a few days, probably to-morrow, and will decide upon a course of action. If the association closes up its books and goes out of business, this will be a frank and very gratifying confession on the part of the good citizens who are supposed to be in it that a Democratic Mayor and Council elected against their strict instructions, are administering the affairs of the city in very satisfactory style. If, on the contrary, the committee propose to galvanize the association into a new existence, it must do something and take a hand in the coming election. The Republican leaders say they don't care to be "indorsed" any more. They had all they wanted of that last time. The Democratic candidates are probably out of the circuit. The Prohibition leaders have been in the business long enough to know a full grown "hoodoo" when they see it loose; and the result will probably be that the Association will have a lonesome time in the next campaign. A great many people of all parties are watching for their action with a good deal of curiosity, and the popular belief is that the Association will pusillanimously take to the woods and leave political reform to shift for herself.

The prohibition convention will meet this morning at 10 o'clock at Good Templar's Hall on North Main street, and it is stated the result will be a straight ticket. The prohibitionists say that they don't intend to be left without a ticket in the field that they can honestly support, and they intend to put up men that can win.

A New Savings Bank.

Yesterday a large force of men were busy fitting up a new banking office in the Weil building, on Main street, near Second. It is the Security Savings and Trust company, with a capital stock of $200,000, of which $100,000 has been paid in. The directors of the concern are: Isaias W. Hellman, O. W. Childs, S. A. Fleming, J. C. Daly, A. J. Bowne, M. B. Shaw, John H. Bartle, J. T. Moore, George W. Perkins, J. F. Sartori, F. N. Myest, and besides these the following are stockholders: Morinus Ampersee, J. C. Thompson, John P. Thorn, J. L. Cheney, T. L. Dugue, J. A. Gross, Eng. Garn, N. Weil, J. F. Shankland, Thomas Meredith, M. S. Hellman, Samuel Palowski, J. M. Cameron, R. Y. McBride.

Free Employment Agency.

There were over 700 applications yesterday at Fehneman's Free Employment Agency on South Spring street, No. 148½, for work of all kinds, and a number of places were offered him to fill. Work was secured for many men with familes who have been out of a job for months.

The Chamber of Commerce put the matter of the circulation of the petition against the division of the county in the hands of Mr. Fehneman, and he turned the job over to half a dozen men who had applied to him for work.

A Change of Officers.

A change has been made in the directory of the Los Angeles and Pacific Railroad. Hitherto Mr. R. C. Shaw has filled the offices of Superintendent and General Manager, but he has now resigned them to become Freight and Traffic manager. Mr. E. E. Hill. President of the road, takes the title of President and General Manager. The company is hard at work putting in turntables at the terminals of the road, and as soon as they are completed the date when the road will be put in operation will be announced.

SENATOR HEARST.

He Will Arrive on This Morning's Train.

President Eugene Germain, of the Board of Trade, receiven a telegram last evening from Sidney Lacey, stating that Senator Hearst will arrive in Los Angeles on this morning's train, and will visit San Pedro with the Board of Trade and Chamber of Commerce.

The members of the Board of Trade and the Chamber of Commerce are reqested to meet at Mr. Germain's office, No. 240 North Main street at 8 o'clock this morning, for the purpose of receiving Senator Hearst. It is urged that all the members of both institutions will be on hand at the hour named, as it is desired to give him as warm a welcome as possible.

He says that the imports consist of a good deal of merchandise, and also large quantities of lumber, as quite a number of houses are going up throughout the valley.

TOURIST TRAVEL.

Developments Regarding the Pullman Deal.

THEIR ATCHISON CONTRACT.

What the Excursion Men Say About the Change—An Eastern Deal.

The seizure of the second-class tourist business over the Santa Fe, by the Pullman Company, which was first announced in these columns, is still the talk of the hour in railroad circles, and a number of other developments were brought to light yesterday. Heretofore the Atchison paid the Pullman Company three cents per mile and defrayed the cost of repairs. Under the new arrangement it sells its half interest in the rolling stock to the Pullman Company for $650,000 and the rate is established at two cents per mile, the Pullman Company paying for repairs. The contract has been made for twenty-five years, commencing on the 1st of February, 1889, but no order has yet been issued as to the date on which the new system will go into effect, although it may be expected at any moment. There are many who think that the capturing of the California excursion business by Pullman will not be of benefit to Southern California. It is given out that Messrs. Phillips brought 5,800 people into this district over the Santa Fe last year, and Messrs. Warner Bros. nearly as many more, this being the result of the canvassing done by those agencies in the Eastern cities. They had traveling men all through the Atlantic States working to get passengers for Southern California, and whenever one was obtained he was sent here over the Santa Fe. Now, the question is, will the Pullman Company adopt the same policy? If they make the same arrangements with the other transcontinental roads that they have with the Santa Fe, the Atchison will certainly suffer by the new deal, for Pullman will then send his business in equal proportions over all the roads, according as the tourists may desire. Then, again, many think that the Pullman people will not take the same interest in drumming up business, but will simply let business run in its ordinary channel. It certainly does seem as if this will be about the way things will go, for as the commission business will be abolished, the incentives which urged on Messrs. Phillips, Warner and the other agencies will also disappear. For the railroads it is of course a good thing, for they will not have to pay out several thousand dollars a year for fees, and what the Santa Fe may lose in the way of business the other lines will gain. It has not yet been settled by Messrs. Phillips and Warner if they will go out of the business, for they may still make arrangements with one of the other roads, but there is no denying that their best opportunities have departed. The way it is generally understood in which Pullman will run the second-class business is this: The second-class or emigrant cars will be fitted up with mattresses, blankets, etc., and one at least in charge of a porter attached to each overland train. For those desiring to avail themselves of the additional accommodations a fee of 50 cents will be charged, which will include everything. This give rise to another important question. As the first-class business is operated by Pullman it will be to his interest to send everything possible in that channel, for his fees in that way are four times those charged for second-class passengers. The excursion agents have acted on exactly a different policy. They have tried to attract the first-class to the second-class business, and with this end in view have fitted up their leased cars with accommodations nearly equal to those enjoyed by first-class tourists. Here again the change will redound to the interests of the railroads, for hitherto about 80 per cent of the California travel has been second-class, whereas if the accommodations pull off the per centage, first-class will pull up; and as a ticket to the Missouri River is relatively $60 and $35, the profits will be considerably higher.

The excursion men are very much incensed that Pullman, who has made about $25,000,000 out of the first-class business, should gobble up the second-class traffic so as to make a few thousands more, but this is an argument which in the financial world is not considered logical.

ANOTHER BIG HAUL.

District Superintendent W. B. Elwood, of the Pullman establishment in this territory, yesterday received official notification of another big haul made by his company. Hitherto Pullman has had two formidable competitors back East in the shape of the Woodruff Car Company and the Mann Boudoir Company, which, combined, operated over about 9,000 miles of road south of the Ohio river. Mr. Pullman has bought them out, and under the title of the Union Palace Car Company will in future operate them from his headquarters at Chicago. A circular announces that the officers in the Pullman service will also manage the affairs of the new adjunct, the following forming the directory: Geo. W. Pullman, President; Jno. S. Runnels, General Counsel; Stephen Little, Auditor; Geo. M. Gray, General Traffic Agent; J. F. Trout, Commissioner; S. W. Bretzfield, Purchasing Agent.

THE CUYAMACA ROAD.

Arrangements for Building About 350 Miles.

About three miles of tracklaying has been done on the Cuyamaca road, and there is enough steel on hand to put down thirty-five miles. It is stated that the company has ordered 20,000 tons in all, or enough for about 350 miles of road and of this, about 2,000 tons have been brought in by the Santa Fe. The rest is coming around Cape Horn, as it can be freighted that way for $6 or $7 a ton, whereas the best the railroads can do is $10 a ton. Application has been made to General Manager McCool to rent some cars and other rolling-stock from the company, but no arrangement has yet been made.

BADLY BRUISED.

An Italian Seriously Wounded by a Countryman.

An Italian by the name of Peter Anesem was brought to the County Jail yesterday from Santa Monica, charged with having committed an assault to murder. He was promptly put to bed in the jail hospital, as there was a deep cut in his arm, several wounds about his head, and his body was covered with bruises. His own account of the affair is that he went hunting Tuesday morning with a shotgun, in a cañon near the city, and stopped on his way at the tent of another Italian, who was a fisherman. After talking over business matters, they began to drink wine. After they took several drinks Anesem lost consciousness of what was going on. The next morning, yesterday, he found himself lying in a field near the place of the debauch, wounded and badly pounded up. He was arrested on his appearance in town, and sent to Los Angeles for safe keeping. Whatever assaulting was done, Anesem appears to have come in for a good thrashing.

THE FIRST SPECIAL.

Orange Trains to Race Across the Continent.

The special orange train which left the city last night over the Southern and and Union Pacific Railroads is the first of the season from Southern California, and will therefore be watched with interest. It consisted of fourteen cars, destined mostly for Missouri river points, although a few bookings have been made for Chicago, and the train is known as the "Strong special," nearly all of the cars having been chartered by Messrs. W. Strong & Co., of Sacramento. To-day a special will leave over the Santa Fe, and as this line is going to make a big fight with the Southern Pacific for the handling of the orange crop this year, some lively competition may be expected. It will not be regarding rates, however, owing to the ironclad agreement entered into by all the transcontinental roads, but will be a question of speed. Although the Southern Pacific train will have one day's start, the Santa Fe people say that their train will get East two days ahead; and, on the other side, the Southern Pacific people say it is more likely to be two days behind. Anyway, there is going to be a lively race across the continent; and, as both trains will run as "cannon-balls," some good running time may be anticipated.

It is announced that the Texas and Pacific will send out a special on Saturday, and the Santa Fe people say that they will hereafter run specials at the rate of three a week until the crop gives out.

AN OFFICIAL MEETING.

Denver and Fort Worth Agents in Town.

A conference will be held to-day in town between the Denver, Texas and Fort Worth officials, Mr. George Ady, general passenger agent of the system, being due here from Denver, while Mr. J. Ingles, the coast agent for the company, will be down from the North. Mr. Ady comes out here to settle up the matters brought under discussion during the recent visit of General Manager Meek, and it is possible that a sub-agency or two will be made. The Santa Fe is now under the new traffic arrangement made with the Denver Road carrying its freight from New Orleans to San Francisco, thus actually carrying competitive business on the Southern Pacific through line between both terminals. The Santa Fe does not, of course, bring the Fort Worth road's business out of Denver, as it has itself a line from that place. It is now understood that the traffic arrangement between the Santa Fe and Southern Pacific by which the Atchison's freight is to be hauled into San Francisco does not bar the Santa Fe out of the Louisiana business, but simply out of that around Deming and El Paso.

Depot Jottings

A. Phillips & Co.'s excursion will leave for the East to-night.

Mr. L. M. Walters, who handles the excursion business for the Chicago and Alton road, will go to San Francisco to-day, and then on to Chicago.

The Meeting Up North.

Mr. C. F. Smear, Assistant Freight and Passenger Agent for the Southern Pacific, returned to town on yesterday morning's train, being twelve hours behind General Manager Dan McCool and Freight and Passenger Agent H. B. Wilkins, of the Santa Fé, who arrived on No. 19 the night previous. When questioned as to the nature of the conference in San Francisco Mr. Wilkins said that it was of no importance to the general public, being one of those periodical meetings rendered necessary by the exigencies of local traffic. It is an understood thing now in railroad circles that all rate competition is over as regards the roads, for by virtue of what is known as the "gentlemen's agreement," viz., that recently made back East, the transcontinental lines are to adhere rigidly to local as well as through tariff rates. It was, therefore, with the object of adjusting the local business under this new arrangement that the convention was called.

KOLB'S CRIME.

He is Committed to Prison Without Bail.

The trouble in which Joseph Kolb finds himself on account of his alleged cruelty to his children promises to be very serious for him. When he was taken into court yesterday morning he pleaded guilty to the charge of cruelty to his children. Justice Austin, desiring to know something of the nature of his cruelty before sentencing him, set the case for 4 o'clock, when some witnesses were expected to be present. At the appointed hour several of the neighbors were present. Mrs. Sample, who lives in the adjoining half of the house, told how sick the little boy was on Tuesday last, and how she and other neighbors had advised that it be put to bed and given good care. On Thursday the child was put to bed, and from that time on to its death the father beat it frequently. On Friday night she heard the father curse the child and beat it. At one time she heard the little boy fall, as if he had tumbled out of bed. Then she heard the father curse the boy, and immediately after she heard a thud and the man say, "Lie down, then, you brat!" A few moments later she heard the boy being struck, and his throat was so choked that he could not cry aloud, and only made a wheezing sound. About noon on Saturday she heard the father again swear at the boy and strike him. Later on she was called into the house, and she witnessed the dying agonies of the child until she could stand it no longer. She then went out into the yard, and in a few minutes she was told the boy was dead.

Other neighbors also testified to the whipping of the boy by the father, and Justice Austin, at the conclusion, said that the testimony tended to show that a crime of a much more serious nature than cruelty to children had been committed, and he advised the District Attorney to look into the matter and draw another complaint.

The District Attorney said that a charge of murder would probably be preferred, and Justice Austin committed the defendant without bail, and set the case for 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Coroner Meredith will disinter the remains of the boy this morning and the body will be examined by physicians.

EIGHT HOURS.

A Mass Meeting to be Held on the Twenty-second.

The American Federation of Labor has issued a circular advocating the calling of mass meetings for the purpose of ultimately making a success of the eight-hour movement. The circular states that the movement to limit the hours of labor to eight per day has for its purpose the improvement in the material and social condition of the laboring men. It says that so long as there are two workmen looking for one employer wages and the condition of laboring men will bend downward, and it requires very little thought to perceive that when the hours of labor are reduced in any trade or calling, wages increase and employment becomes less fluctuating. The Convention of the American Federation of Labor has most appropriately set apart four days upon which the working people of the entire country are called upon to hold eight hour mass meetings in every city and town. These days are February 22d, July 4th, September 2d, 1889, and February 22, 1890. It is expected that at the appointed time, May 1st, the eight hour rule will go into effect everywhere.

A mass meeting will be called in Los Angeles for the 22d instaat, but the place has not yet been selected. It will be announced as soon as decided upon.

Suffrage Meeting.

At the Cottage Suffrage meeting on February 5, 1889, a member spoke concerning a letter received from a Legislator in regard to the Municipal Suffrage bill now pending. Some Legislators fear it was said to favor its passage lest women vote with an unpopular party.

The most enjoyable and instructive feature of the meeting was an original essay by Mrs. Alice McComus. It had many good words for woman suffrage, though its subject was "Woman's Work; what it comprehends." At the close of the reading of this essay the President desired criticism. Nearly all expressed themselves so well pleased as to be unable to furnish any.

Hare Exonerated.

Wm. J. Hare, who was arrested three days ago at Santa Monica on the charge of having assaulted Mrs. Stoddard and attempted robbery at her home, was allowed to go free yesterday after having spent several days in jail. Several other men were arrested on the same charge, and Mrs. Stoddard tried to identify them, bur was finally unable to make up her mind which of them was the guilty party. She was quite sure, however, that it was not Hare.

Consumption Can Be Cured.
This has been demonstrated in thousands of cases treated by
DR. WILLIAMS,
With his new system of medicated inhalations, also the oxygen and compound oxygen treatment, combined with proper constitutional remedies for the liver, stomach, blood, etc.

Probably no system of practice ever adopted has been so universally successful as that introduced by Dr. Williams for the cure of Catarrh, Throat Diseases, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

CATARRH.

Catarrh is often regarded by the patient as a cold in the head, and he often expresses his astonishment at his remarkable tendency to contract a fresh cold. Indeed, he declares he is scarcely free from one cold before he takes another; and he is always exceedingly careful. It is also a matter of surprise to him that the cold always seems to settle in the head and throat.

At times many of the symptoms of Catarrh may seem to abate, and the patient is led to hope that the disease is about to wear off; but another class of symptoms soon appear, and he learns to his horror that instead of recovery from the disease it is somewhat changed in its character and has extended to the throat. A sense of weariness is sometimes felt in reading, speaking or singing, hoarseness at times occurs, a sensation of dryness is sometimes felt in the throat, or it appears that some foreign substance, as, for instance, a hair, obstructed the throat; there becomes a sense of languor and fatigue, the breath lessens upon a little exertion, a short, hacking cough, a peculiar sound in clearing the throat, a feeling as though there was not room enough in the chest to breathe; these and other symptoms occur after the disease has made considerable progress. Then it is a time when consumption is about to begin its dreadful work. Up to this point the progress of the disease may have been slow, and the patient may in expressing his confident hope that it will "wear off," declare that he has had the catarrh for years and has not seemed to become much worse, and trusts he will "by-and-by" recover. But this delusion is the grand error which has peopled our cemeteries with consumptive forms, as all forms of catarrh end finally in consumption.

Inhalations are applicable in all diseases of the respiratory organs, but must be prepared for each individual case as they severally require.

By the employment of proper inhalation in the form of medicated vapor (not steam or spray) we are able to produce immediate and direct action upon the diseased surface in the pharynx and nasal passages, for air will find its way into the most remote and intricate cavities, where it is impossible to make fluid applications. By these means every case can be cured.

Persons desiring treatment by this system of practice can use the remedies at home as well as at our office, and which will cause no inconvenience or hindrance to business whatever.

I have seen so many of these cases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless unless both lungs are seriously involved. Even then the inhalations aid us in dissolving the mucus and in contracting and healing the cavities, which nothing else can do with the same success.

The very best references from those already cured.

Oxygen is widely known for its life-giving and vitalizing power; and inhalations of this potent agent in its various forms, oxygen-gas nitrogen-monoxide, peroxide of hydrogen, ozone, etc., combined with medicated inhalations and specific internal remedies, constitute a treatment that is unrivaled in its effects.

A Leading New York Physician,
In speaking of the use of the mixed gasses, says a few weeks' treatment will usually be followed by "increased activity of the digestive, assimilative and excretory functions; hence follows relief of chronic constipation and return of normal appetite; dyspnœa from any cause may be relieved, severe asthma not excepted, the treatment proving almost a specific; softening and absorption of morbid deposits of every character, whether lymphous, tuberculous or cancerous; habitual headaches and neuralgias of almost every form, even chronic sciatica cured or materially alleviated; marked increase in the breathing capacity; progressive 'toning-up' of the muscular and nervous systems; restoration of voice in some cases of nervous aphonia and lost vocal power; removal of inveterate insomnia; invigoration of impaired or declining VIRILE POWER, and, in a word, increased mental and physical vigor. Nor are these results merely temporary, as from stimulation. They are essentially permanent and substantial."

THE GRAPE DISEASE.

It is Wide-Spread, but will be Suppressed Shortly.

EDITORS HERALD: The subjoined letter from Mr. Robert McPherson, of this county, speaks for itself. It is offered for publication as a justification of Mr. McPherson's statement of the existence of the grape disease at Fresno, and also to give such information to those people as may enable them to protect their vineyards. I have an all-abiding faith that before the vines come out in leaf again we can name remedies which will protect all vines not affected, and, possibly, save those which are not too far gone.

Respectfully yours,
J. DE BARTH SHORB.

P. S.—Last week's examination of canes sent to us from Santa Clara county established the fact that they unfortunately have the same disease there, a fact which has been duly communicated to the Commission. J. D. B. S.

MCPHERSON, JANUARY 31ST, 1888.

Mr. J. De Barth Shorb, San Gabriel, Cal.:

DEAR SIR—I have your favor of the 21st, and note that you desire me to state what I know of the existence of the mysterious vine trouble in Fresno. I will say, in plain terms, I spent but one day among the vineyards at Fresno, but made as much of the time as I could. I drove to a number of vineyards and brought away specimens that showed the disease, as we have it very plainly. I not only found the leaf signs, but I also found canes that had dropped, the leaves and the cane still holding green, as in the early part of the season. This latter condition is very common in vineyards where the disease is well advanced. I am not alone in my opinion that the disease is in Fresno, for a party from Orange quite early in the season, passing that country, made the statement that it existed at Fresno. Also Mr. WM. Van Doren, a vineyardist in this valley, who was for a number of years our foreman, while foreman for Mr. Chas. Leslie at Fresno, last fall sent affected leaves home to his family, and these leaves were examined by a number in our valley, and by all the leaves were considered affected by the same disease as our own vines. I have it from others also. I met several parties while I was in San Francisco and San Jose, and when I described the disease they were able to recognize the disease as existing in their midst, and that the result was more discernible last year than the year previous. Now, while our vineyards are very seriously affected, and without a remedy will soon be worthless, I am not going to say that the disease will surely cause the same destruction at Fresno as here. The climate may be in their favor there. This is only conjecture. I hope they may not be troubled more than they now are. I am very sorry to see that the people there feel so tender on this subject. I only wish that some one had shown me what this disease was about two years ago. Hoping that you and our friend Professor Dowling may find the remedy for all your trouble. I am yours very truly,

ROBERT MCPHERSON.

THE POLICE COMMISSION.

Several Unimportant Matters Considered Yesterday.

The Police Commissioners met yesterday afternoon, Mayor Bryson in the chair and Councilman Kuhrts and Chief Cooney present.

Dr. Choate appeared and stated that Officer Dorsey had contracted a sickness in the pursuit of his duty, and he had recommended that his salary be allowed, as provided by ordinance. He was directed to have the matter taken before the Council first.

The applications of P. Welch and M. Faure for changes of saloon licenses were referred to the Chief for investigation.

Licenses were granted to G. Kurtzer and C. Mehl.

Dr. Bryant's resolution, introduced in the Council and referred to the Police Commission, in reference to the suppression of gambling, came up. Mr. Kuhrts said that the games were being raided properly by the Chief, and that over 90 arrests had been made for gambling during January.

Officer Bosqui appeared and asked to be appointed as a special, but was informed that there were no vacancies.

The Board then adjourned.

WILSON'S PEAK.

A Telescope to be Placed There Temporarily.

Fifteen men were put to work Tuesday morning on what is known as Wilson's trail, that is the road leading to the summit of Wilson's Peak, where the big telescope and observatory is to be located. It is given out that the 13-inch lens telescope which was sent out to the Wilsons in charge of Professor Pickering, so that that gentlemen could witness the eclipse of the sun, is to be brought to Wilson's Peak inside of three weeks. It will only be there about six or seven months, however, as it is then to go to South America with an astronomical expedition in charge of Professor Pickering. The telescope which weighs two tons is now being boxed for shipment to this city, and will arrive in a few days, and meantime Mr. N. C. Carter and Judge Eaton, who have been appointed a committee to arrange for its handling in this district, will have everything ready for its reception. The trail by which the observatory will be reached commences at Carterhia, at the end of Baldwin ave-avenue, and will be in good condition in a few days.

THE M'LAUD CASE.

The Defense Introduces its Testimony.

The case of Mrs. McLaud against the Councilmen and Dr. Hagan is still on trial before Judge Wade and a jury. Judge Wade, at the morning session, dismissed the case as to Mayor Workman and the Councilmen, and the defendants remaining were Dr. Hagan and his assistants. These defendants introduced testimony to show that every precaution had been taken to remove the deceased Ida Searles from her home in safety to the pest house, and that everything was done that was possible after she got there to make her comfortable. Testimony was also introduced to show that she would have died even if she had staid at home; that she lived in a tenement house in which there were other families, and that it was for the public safety that she was removed. The case will probably be completed to-day.

OUT OF WORK.

The Free Labor Agency Opened Yesterday.

The free labor and employment office conducted by Mr. B. Fehnemann at No. 148½ South Spring street opened at noon Tuesday. From the moment its doors were thrown ajar until the hour of closing, at 4 P. M., a long line of applicants to register kept Mr. Fehnemann and his assistants busy. At the termination of the day's business the record showed that 270 men and 33 women had registered for all sorts and descriptions of employment, and twelve positions had been furnished The operators of the agency wish that everyone who desires to employ labor of any description, for any length of time, even for a day or an hour, will let them know, and they will see that their wants are supplied immediately. No charges are made either on the employer or the employed.

HOW MANY WAYS CAN THIS BE READ?

THE LOS ANGELES HERALD IS BY ALL ACKNOWLEDGED have been the prime factor in the discovery and making known of the resources of this section. To its sagacious outgivings more than to any other agency our marvelous development is attributed.

THE HERALD has from its inception watched with a single eye the budding industries of this portion of the State. For each good enterprise this journal has at all times had a word of cheerful encouragement. In spite of the skeptical, it has survived to see all of its earlier predictions fullfilled to the letter.

THE HERALD to-day takes the lead in all respects among the papers of Southern California. Its first care still is the material, intellectual and social interests of its section. It aims to be truthful rather than over-zealous in its publication of news; to be conservative rather than over-sensational, in its policy; to be clean and decent, respecting the sacred precincts of the home and fireside, rather than indecently salacious in its tone.

THE HERALD gets all the news from all quarters of the globe with promptness accuracy and dispatch. Its local staff is energetic and well-trained to miss nothing of real importance to its readers. It is always alive to all public enterprises.

THE HERALD still takes pride in aiding any legitimate material, intellectual or social movement which will benefit the people. No other journal in this section approaches it in those important respects.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1889.

CONGRESSMAN BRECKINRIDGE, of Arkansas, will do a very foolish thing should he be forced by a false sentiment to resign his seat in the House of Representatives in order to free his skirts of the blood of Clayton, whose foul murder is a deep and damnable stain on the hands of those who committed so outrageous a crime. But does anyone who knows anything of Mr. Breckenridge suppose that his withers are at all wrung by any participation, near or remote, direct or indirect, in the diabolical deed? To be sure, had Clayton lived and contested the seat held by Breckenridge, the contestant would have been seated and the Democratic member would have lost his seat—in all probability. There will be in the Fifty-first Congress a small Republican majority. It will not be a safe working majority, and there will be a strong desire to increase its efficiency. We say this because of the history of the Republican party in the years just following the war. All there was necessary to throw out a Democrat, neck and crop, was for his competitor to set up a claim of fraud, intimidation, or what not. It was a mere formality. The same game is likely to be played in the next session of Congress; but despite the fact that Mr. Breckinridge's fate was all but sealed beforehand, no one whose opinion is worth considering will suspect for half a minute that he, by a hint or wink, is an accessory to the murder of his political rival.

READERS of the HERALD are familiar with the contest for a seat in the next Congress between Gen. Tom Clunie and Timothy Guy Phelps in the Fifth District of California. When the count was finished Clunie was ahead by a rather slender plurality. His political opponents set to work to count him out of his seat. A recount was made, and the gallant General's plurality was reduced by about one half, but he was still in the lead. Now, it is a matter perfectly understood in both the national parties that the g. o. p. is not satisfied with the complexion of the Lower House in the National Legislature. The majority is too utterly small to allow of much "funny business." It would be most desirable to enlarge that majority to the number of an easy working one. Therefore it was alleged that there had been fraud committed of which Clunie was the beneficiary, not only in the polling of the vote and the first counting of it, but that even the second count was not fairly made. Clunie is nothing if not fair. He at once, and on the solicitation of Mr. Phelps and his friends, entered with an agreement to stand a third count of the votes, the express stipulation being made by his opponent that this result was to be accepted as final, and that no appeal of any sort was to be made from it. The manipulators of the party of all morals most assuredly thought that they would be able n some way to pare off a vote here and one there from the Democratic candidate, so as to bring the venerable and fossilized sage of San Mateo one or two votes ahead. But no sort of finesse was sufficient to accomplish the desired result. In spite of all the chicanery practicable, Clunie still came in a winner by the amount of nine votes. In vie w of the compact between the two principals to this interesting contest, the public were led to believe that here was an end to it. But this is not to be. That ancient humbug of the Redwood flats is not to be disposed of so easily. Where the only bond to hold him by is his own word, the security is worth but little. This Republican Guy will not abide by his own agreement. To be sure he is not out in his own name with the proclamation that he will contest Clunie's seat maugre his promise to quit. But the San Francisco Chronicle gives tongue to Phelps' hypocrisy in an editorial which claims that the promise made binds only Phelps, but cannot bind the g. o. p., whose rights are at stake in the matter. Now, of course, that is all the veriest subterfuge and hypocrisy. The Republican party has no standing before the court where this contest must be made. No political party has any legal existence in Congress. There is no plaintiff to appear and contest the seat, excepting Timothy Guy Phelps. He may, of course, come forward and set up a whining plea that his party will not permit him to keep his word; that the party bosses insist on his making an infamous liar of himself. It will all the same brand the antiquated, antediluvian granger of the bay swamps as a most unmanly and mendacious, false and cowardly rascal.

The Need of the Hour.

What Los Angeles needs just now is a liberal infusion of men with larger brains. With larger brains would come more faith, more courage, and more enterprise. That is all there is lacking to set all wheels moving as they moved a year ago. There is here the same soil as we have all been lauding to the skies for half a century, and there is the same skies as we have been setting forth as the brightest under the sun. Our soil is one whose productiveness has not an equal in any zone of the earth. There is hardly a crop that grows in any clime which does not flourish here. Not only one harvest a year blesses the labors of the granger, a programme which has to satisfy him in all other sections of the country, but here there is not a month in the twelve when he fails to garner a crop, to market the products of his farm, and to bank the results of his sales. And we do not need a section of land, to plant part one month and part another. There are many crops which may be produced in regular succession here from the same acre of land. Indeed there are some which are perennial in a practical sense, for as fast as one crop is gathered the seed may be sown for another in the very same bit of land. Nor is this all. Not only may the farmer reap crop after crop from the same field in the same year, but our soils produce crops whose returns are larger in a money value for an acre than may be gathered from ten acres elsewhere. It is not necessary to go into details as to these matters. They are all perfectly understood. It is too late in the day to tell intelligent people that a dozen sorts of garden vegetables grow month after month here and mature every day in the year. It is well enough established that strawberries yield fruit at all seasons. So it is that potatoes, cabbage and other of the commoner sorts of vegetables yield two or three crops a year. Who has not heard that our alfalfa meadows are mowed six or eight times a year? As little need is there to discuss the results of farming in a money measure. These same alfalfa meadows pay as much as the gross sum of $150 a year. Potatoes sell here right along for 75 cents to $1 and $1.50 per hundred weight. The practical farmer knows what three crops a year at these rates mean. The orange groves of Los Angeles pay $400, $500 and even larger sums per acre year in and year out. Walnuts pay almost as large revenues, and prunes pay quite as large. Fig culture is in its infancy, but it will be one of the most profitable of all our industries.

Then there is the climate. Here are skies far brighter than those which bend over the Riviera of Italy. Here are winter days milder than those of Naples, balmier than those of any part of vine-clad Greece. Our gardens these February days are gay with roses, pinks, heliorope and callas. The hedges of the country are bright with masses of the tenderest geraniums. In our surf at the shore even little children enjoy a plunge all through the winter, when the sea is as warm as in mid-August. As for health, there is almost an absolute assurance of it in the fresh breezes, so gentle and pure, that come from over the unpolluted expanses of the Pacific's tepid seas. The diseases that flesh is heir to in all other lands are either unknown here, or they are of such rare occurrence and of so mild a type as to cause no alarm, because the fatality from them is almost nil. In these balmy airs, beneath these smiling skies, life is a continual inspiration and benediction. There is here no such thing as a struggle for life because of the severity of the weather in respect of either heat or cold. Nor is there a struggle for bread to sustain life because of the barrenness of the land.

Such are the conditions that surround this section. Is any so blind that he does not see that these fertile valleys will be all filled rapidly with a most highly prosperous and consequently satisfied population? Is any so stupid as to doubt that the affluent, whether ill or well, will flock here in myriads to enjoy the beauty of this landscape, the fragrance of our winter flowers, the comfort of perfect days the health that comes from mild days and airs from the ocean's purifying laboratory?

It is nonsense to say there is no money here. The banks are full of coin. The accounts of the depositors run up into the millions and tens of millions. But this money is in the hands of timid and shortsighted people. Here are these broad plains lying untilled and unproductive. Here is the richest section in the Union importing the products of our own soil. We are enriching the farmers of the frozen plains of Kansas, and of the wind-swept prairies of Nebraska with coin paid for commodities that we can distance them tenfold in producing. Surely to the people of this section the words of the competitor of Cæsar may well be applied:

It is not in our stars
But in ourselves, that we are underlings.

Had we but the wisdom, the enterprise and the economy of other communities, dull times would not trouble us. If we could only see the riches that lie around us we would seize on them. If we had faith in our opportunities equal to their merits the busy hum of industry would not have died out in the most phenomenally remunerative section of the United States. Here is the money, here is the field in which to use it and reap a usufruct of a hundred per cent, but we cannot see it, or lack the pluck to risk a stake on our own judgment, or on the section of our own choice. The country needs new blood. It needs men of larger ideas, of more push, energy and faith. They will come and cheat most of us of our possibilities.

THERE are a few long-headed men left in this community. The proof, to some extent, may be found on Main street, below Second, where there is a big gang of men with teams at work excavating the cellar for an immense three-story brick block. Material is cheap and labor is cheap. Bricks are to be had for half price; lumber is one-third cheaper than it was a year ago; mechanics of all classes are willing to work for much lower wages than were current in the boom excitement. The net result is that an edifice can be erected for between one-third and one-half less than it would have cost a year ago. Far-seeing men know this, and take advantage of the favorable circumstances to save large sums of money and get a better building. The probabilities are extreme that by the time this building is put up there will be a brisk demand for the stores and offices it contains. Now is emphatically the time to build a dwelling or a business block.

THERE is certainly no pleasure to any one in the fact that the destructive vine disease has not spared in its ravages any county of the Golden State. We would much prefer to publish the statement that so fair a county as Fresno is free of the scourge, than it is to chronicle the allegation that the dread disease is among her vines. The truth, however, is what a newspaper wants; it is what the public demands at its hands. It is, therefore, with no feeling of satisfaction that we publish to-dav a letter from a well known citizen of this section which goes to prove that, to a smaller or larger extent, the disease is in the Fresno vineyards. We heartily join in the hope of the writer of the communication referred to that the climate or other surroundings of fair Fresno's vineyard may work in the direction of checking the spread of this disease, and that means may speedily be devised to rid the whole state of an enemy so destructive to her prosperity.

IT IS a notable confession of weakness on the part of our Republican friends in this city that they have put off the holding of their primaries and convention to the very eve of the election. They claim, and loudly claim, that the battle is theirs before it is fought. In the last election they carried all the general offices with the exception of Mayor, and they assert that he is the choice of a large part of the Republican party who preferred him to the nominee of their own party. The same assertion is heard in regard to many of the Democratic Councilmen. In spite of so much vaporing and of so loud bloviating, it is very significant that they do not intend to permit of any fight over their nominees or any discussion of their platform. This may be great generalship. On the supposition that their cause is weak and forces small, it is great strategy. But it is not what we were led to expect from their boasting.

SENATOR HEARST will arrive in this city to-day, and will accompany our Board of Trade to San Pedro to look over the harbor. We take great pleasure in welcoming this patriotic and practically sagacious statesman to the good city of the Angels, and we take especial delight in the knowledge that the distinguished Senator finds time to look into the needs of this section in respect to the betterment of its harbor facilities. This visit and tour of inspection will enlist the able advocacy of Senator Hearst in our cause, and we may expect, as the result of his observation, a strong and energetic friend at the National Capital.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Successful Carleton Season at the Grand.

Last night Mr. Wm. T. Carleton and his excellent company produced, for the second time this week, Mynheer Jan, the new operatic sensation. A large and very appreciative house greeted him on this, as on all other evenings of his season here. The performance was of that artistic and otherwise satisfactory nature, which characterizes all the productions of this finely trained company.

To-night Strauss' charming opera The Queen's Lace Handkerchief will be given again.

Laugh While You May.

From criticisms of the Northern press, it is safe to assume that those who witness the performance of Fun on the Bristol to-night at the Los Angeles Theater, will be amply repaid for their attendance. The laughable and uproariously funny musical comedy is strongly cast, and the very popular comedians, William Courtwright, Billy Rice, Will H. Bray and Harry Conners, assisted by the balance of the company, will, no doubt, keep the audience in an uproar during the evening.

On Saturday afternoon, at the matinee, an elegant life-size wax doll will be given away to the school child holding the lucky number.

Joe Emmet at the Grand.

Joe Emmet, the same light-hearted, merry "Fritz," appeared at the Grand last night. Just as young and sweet of voice as ever, bubbling up melodiously like a song-memory of the past. There was a vast audience assembled, and one quite as responsive as ever honored "Fritz" by its applause. Its people recognized at once that magnetic influence that in this actor all seem to have agreed to worship. What a striking and remarkable character is Emmet at any rate. How marked his individuality, and how lasting his hold upon the public. If he has aged any it was not apparent last evening, nor has he deteriorated any in voice, or lost any of the elasticity of step. He sang and danced just as of old, carrying his audience to that pitch that his every song was redemanded. Mr. Emmet presented the original Fritz, the best and most successful of all his plays, and it may be said that those who saw him last evening saw him at his best.

His supporting company was very good, some one or two of its individuals demanding special mention.—[Cincinnati Commercial Gazette.

Watching for Rain.

The farmers are watching the gathering clouds with glee, for another rain now will do a world of wonders, especially so in the Santa Ana and San Fernando Valleys, where on Saturday and Sunday last raged fierce north winds, which dried up the soil and made layers of dirt all over the country. The clouds are reported to extend a good distance north and south, though no rain has yet been been reported.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

The Civil Service System Roughly Handled.

THE DAY FOR ISOLATION PAST.

Inquiry into the Instructions Given to the Richard Rush—The Lambs of Europe.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD]

WASHINGTON, February 6.—In the Senate, the Senate bill granting the Big Horn Southern Railway right-of-way across the Fort Custer Military reservation in Montana passed.

The resolution heretofore offered by Chandler instructing the Committee on Appropriations to investigate the matter of naval officers' claims, was taken up. After a long debate the resolution went over without action, and the Executive and Judicial Appropriation bill was taken up.

The pending question was the amendment to increase the clerical force of the Civil Service Commission. A long and uninteresting discussion, which turned principally upon the derelictions of the Post-office Department, was carried on by Cockrell, Teller, Vest and Stewart. Then Daniels attacked the Civil Service system itself, as being un-American, un-Republican, and un-Democratic. While he regretted the defeat of the present administration, he felt there would be some consolation in it if the incoming administration should manifest no affection for the modern machine system of appointments. He hoped it would lead the Government back to the old principle in which the people were recognized as having a right to share in the people's offices. If the Republican party would go about it sincerely and help to rid the country of that humbug, he would pledge them at least one democratic vote to assist them in doing it. He longed to see the time when a plain American citizen might feel there was not a bar to any office under the Government of which he was worthy, and he hoped the new administration and its advisers would find some way of amending the system, as as to throw open the doors to all applicants, although they might be subjected when necessary to proper examination.

THE HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, February 6.—Consideration of the conference report on the Nicaraguan Canal bill was resumed, it being agreed that the debate should be closed at 3 o'clock.

Nelson, of Minnesota, opposed the conference report. Chipman, of Michigan, said he favored the bill as it came from the Senate. He had not favored it as it passed the House, the amendments which had been placed upon it having served to emasculate it. They had been incorporated on the idea that the United States should be free from entangling alliances, and that it should isolate itself. The day for isolation had passed. Voices from all parts of the world were warning the United States of this; voices from the Isthmus, from Canada, from Samoa, and from wherever foreign nations had planted their flags. The attempt to make it impracticable for American enterprise to place itself in foreign countries was too late, we are carrying the flag into that region of Central America. We are carrying it with the endorsement of this Government. We have put ourselves where, though we may not be pecuniarily liable, we shall be morally responsible for the safety and protection of great American enterprises, which will help to spread our country over the world. I, for one, hope that this step is only the prelude to the day when, the nation will follow and we, as a people, will plant our feet on those regions, and when our flag shall wave over the Sate of Nicaragua as a State of the United States of America. [Applause.]

Dingley, Maine, favored the report. O'Neill, Missouri, said he was in receipt of many telegrams from prominent men in St. Louis in favor of the bill. He said it was not a case of extreme sensitiveness concerning bondholders. The trouble with the American people was lack of self-assertion. They were continually quibbling, afraid to do this or that on account of the consequences. The greatest nation on earth should be the first to lead in giant enterprises, and conservative, moss-back statesmen need not be alarmed.

Scott, of Pennsylvania, said the gentleman from Alabama (Cobb) had supplemented his constitutional argument by an expression of the interest he took in the lambs of Europe, and of his fear that Congress might do something by which those lambs would be inveigled into investment and lose their money. If the lambs of Europe, as represented by the Rothschilds, the Barings, and other great banking houses, were not able to take care of themselves and look out for their own investments, he did not think the Congress of the United States could help them.

Clardy, of Missouri, closed the debate in support of the conference report, and it was agreed to; yeas 177, nays 60.

Dingley, Maine, from the Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries, reported a resolution calling on the Secretary of the Treasury for information as to what orders were given to the commander of the United States revenue cutter Rush in regard to the protection of the seal fisheries in Behring's Sea in the spring and summer of 1888, and whether such instructions differed from those given to the commander in the spring and summer of 1887, and if so what reasons existed for any material change in such instructions. Adopted. The House then took recess.

At the evening session, Peel, Arkanas, called up the House bill to divide a portion of the reservation of the Sioux Indians in Dakota into separate reservations, and secure relinquishment of the title to the remainder. Amendments exempting honorably discharged Union soldiers and sailors from payment of sums required to be paid by settlers upon lands surrendered by Indians, and to relieve all settlers from payment upon their entries, were held to be pending with the understanding that a vote be taken upon them to-morrow. After a few other unimportant changes had been made, the previous question was ordered and the bill laid aside until to-morrow. Adjourned.

The Territories.

WASHINGTON, February 6.—The House Committee on Territories, although not unanimous in regard to the bill for the admission of Utah, appointed a subcommittee of five, with Springer, chairman, to draft a report to the effect that owing to the lateness of the session it would be impracticable to secure the passage of the bill. The Committee also decided to report favorably the omnibus bill for the admission of Idaho, Wyoming and Arizona. The vote was practically unanimous, although one or two members expressed themselves as opposed to to the omnibus system, and preferred to admit these Territories singly.

BUNGLER BAYARD.

The Wool Pulled Over His Eyes by Wily Bismarck.

WASHINGTON, February 6.—Secretary Bayard has notified the German Minister at Washington that this government accepts the proposition for the resumption at Berlin of the conference begun in Washington in 1877 in regard to Samoa.

CHICAGO, February 6.—The Journal puts the following headlines on a story giving the above-mentioned facts: "A Meek acquiescence—Secretary Bayard Gently Turns the Other Cheek for Germany to Slap—Bismarck's Impudent Proposition for a Conference at Berlin on Samoa Agreed To."

Railroad Sinking Funds.

WASHINGTON, February 6.—The Senate, several days ago, adopted the resolution offered by Mitchell, calling on the Secretary of the Treasury for information as to the amounts in sinking fund to the credit of the Union Pacific and Central Pacific Railroad Companies in February 1, 1888, under the operation of the Thurman sinking fund act, which requires a statement of the amount of funds invested in bonds, the face value of the bonds purchased, their present market value and the difference between the amount of the sinking fund had it been uninvested, and the amount due to investment. In response, the Secretary to-day laid it before the Senate. It makes the following statement: Union Pacific, money for Government transportation withheld under the act of May 7, 1888, $6,351,875; easy payments by the company, $1,421,714, making a total paid into the sinking fund of $1,773,589. This money was invested in United States bonds and Pacific Railroad first mortgage bonds, total face value, $7,249,490. The market value of the bonds, February 1, 1889, was $9,030,440, showing the increase by reason of investments to have been $1,256,850. From the Central Pacific, $3,469,681 was received and invested in bonds of the face value of $3,141,883, with the market value, February 1, 1889, of $3,821,785, making the increase by reason of investments, $352,104.

Foreign Relations.

WASHINGTON, Fecruary 6.—Owing to the caucus there were no Democratic members of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations present at the committee meeting to-day, and nothing but routine business was disposed of. The Samoan matter was under consideration, but Saulsbury's resolution requesting the committee to report an expression of its opinion as to what should be done by the President was not considered.

Whitney's Reception.

WASHINGTON, February 6.—The Democratic members of the House and Senate generally attended the reception given by Secretary Whitney this afternoon to Governor Hill, of New York. The gathering also included prominent Democrats outside of Congress. Later in the afternoon Governor Hill left the city for New York.

Right of Way to Point Sur.

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 6.—A letter from the Secretary of the Treasury asking an appropriation of $1,500 to buy the right of way to Point Sur Lighthouse Station in California, was presented in the Senate to-day.

HARRISON'S CABINET.

Some More Guesses About Its Personnel.

INDIANAPOLIS, February 6.—Among the Cabinet speculations Blaine, Windom, Rusk and Wanamaker stand at the head of the list to-night, and there are those who believe that each name is a fixed star. Closely following these four favorites come the names of Evarts, Warner Miller, Charles Foster and Judge Estee.

This afternoon 200 coal operators and miners, now holding a convention here, visited the President-elect in a body. There was no speech-making on either side.

Among the out-of-town visitors of prominence, Edmunds Morton Smith, of Denver, came to present to the President-elect a memorial signed by Governor Cooper, of Colorado, the Lieutenant-Governor, the Secretary of State, and all other State officers, strongly endorsing Hon. John M. Thurston, of Omaha, for Secretary of the Interior. He also brought a petition, signed by nearly every member of the State Senate and House, Democrats as well as Republicans, to the same effect.

DENVER, Col., February 6.—A movement is on foot in Colorado supporting ex-Governor John L. Routt as an applicant for a Cabinet position under President-elect Harrison. Besides having the support of the leading Western politicians and prominent business men, the General Assembly has unanimously adopted the following resolution:

"WHEREAS, Colorado stands in the fore front of the Western States in growth and the various interests which demand the fostering care of the general government; and

WHEREAS, All the interests of Colorado would be forwarded and better protected by the appointment of one of her distinguished citizens to a Cabinet position; and

WHEREAS, John L. Routt, by reason of his long and eminent public services and well-known ability, above all others commands the full confidence and hearty support of all the citizens of Colorado, therefore be it

Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the Seventh General Assembly of the State of Colorado, that Hon. Benjamin Harrison, President-elect, be, and is hereby requested and urged to appoint Hon. John L. Routt of Colorado to a Cabinet position.

ST. LOUIS, February 6.—A delegation left Topeka, Kansas, to-day, for Indianapolis, to present to President Harrison the resolutions adopted by the Legislature tendering Senator Plumb for a place in the Cabinet.

Gavigan Gets Off.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 6.—The charge of felony embezzlement pending for some time against William J. Gavigan, special counsel for the collection of delinquent taxes, was dismissed this afternoon by Judge Lawler, who said he did not believe the defendant had any intention of defrauding the city, although he might have been slow in making an accounting. The money Gavigan is accused of embezzling was paid him by Public Administer Pennie, and Gavigan gave a receipt for the amount.

Large Shipment of Oranges.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 6.—The largest orange shipment of the season went East over the Union Pacific line to-day from Los Angeles. It consisted of ten carloads, or 3,000 boxes.

THE LATE GOVERNOR.

Memorial Services Held Yesterday in the Capital.

HON. WASHINGTON BARTLETT.

A Strong, Self-Reliant, Honorable Man, who was Unswervingly True to the People.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

SACRAMENTO, February 6.—A large audience gathered in the Assembly chamber this afternoon to witness the Bartlett memorial exercises. The First Artillery Band played the Funeral March immediately upon the assemblage being called to order by Speaker Howe. The Senate, headed by the relatives of the late Governor, and President White, entered in a body and took seats around the room, after which the roll call of both Houses was ordered. Rev. A. C. Bane, Chaplain of the Senate, invoked the confirmation of the Almighty upon the proceedings. Colonel John P. Irish delivered the oration. "The present proceedings," he said, "are a fitting supplement to countless private expressions of sympathy expressed for California in her sorrow. In our free society the man is great who does his duty with clean hands. Washington Bartlett was such a man." The speaker then referred to the late Governor's early life. Following the intelligent habits of his ancestors, he early devised ways of self-support. Governor Bartlett was the owner of a newspaper in Florida before he was bearded, and at the age of 22 was elected State Printer of Florida. He then came to California and brought his newspaper with him, which he reestablished in the new country. The familiar history of Washington Bartlett's political career up to his election as Governor and subsequent demise was referred to in detail. His success was attributed to his fidelity to the people. He resorted to no trick to catch the popular vote. The address was ordered spread upon the journals of both Houses. Chaplain Early delivered the benediction and an adjournment was taken.

Goldenson's Daubs.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 6.—The parents of Alex. Goldenson, recently hanged for the murder of Mamie Kelly, have brought suit in the Justice's Court to obtain possession of 101 pictures, paintings and sketches, the handiwork of their dead son, which it is alleged are wrongfully held by Schussler Brothers. The value of the goods is placed at $100, and $100 damages is claimed from those with whom they have been placed on exhibition by other parties. The case will come up next week before Justice Reimer.

A Pair of Abortionists.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 6.—The trial of Mrs. Louisa Hagenow, keeper of the female hospital, on a charge of murdering Annie Dorris by malpractice, was begun in Judge Murphy's Court this afternoon. Six jurors were secured. Dr. Favier Dodel is jointly charged with murder in the complaint. Mrs. Hagenow was tried three times on the charge of murdering Louise Dechow in a similar manner, but managed to secure an acquittal.

The Second-Class Sleepers.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 6.—General Passenger Agent W. A. Bissell, of the Atlantic & Pacific, received a telegram from Topeka to-day, announcing that the Pullman Company had closed its contract with the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe for the management of the second-class sleeping car service of that line. Phillips & Co., who, with the Warners, have run the business up to the present time, ran out their last train this evening.

A New Trial Asked For.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 6.—Notice of motion for a new trial has been filed in the case of the Sierra Lumber Company, which was recently defeated by the government. The grounds urged are misconduct of the case before the jury; excessive damages, which, it is alleged, were given under the influence of prejudice; and insufficient evidence to warrant the verdict.

A Night Session.

SACRAMENTO, February 6.—The Senate and the Assembly held a night session to-night, both spending the time in the first reading of bills.

Governor Waterman to-day signed the Assembly bill, appropriating $6,000 to pay the claims for the stone work furnished at the Napa Insane Asylum.

Southbound Passengers.

The Seized Sealers.

Found Dead.

VIRGINIA, Nev., February 6.—Edward Mulcahey, a miner employed in the Yellow Jacket, was found dead at the foot of the waste dump to-day. It is thought that, while intoxicated, he wandered out on the trestle and fell from it, a distance of eighty feet.

Found Guilty.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 6.—The jury in the case of J. H. Glennon, the policeman dismissed from the force for an unprovoked attempt to kill Willie Burke, made, it is claimed, while under the influence of liquor, found him guilty to-day of assault to commit murder.

No Waterworks for Colton.

COLTON, February 6.—The proposition to vote $100,000 for city water works has been defeated.

PERILS OF THE SEA.

Dreadful Sufferings of a Schooner's Crew.

RESCUED IN THE NICK OF TIME.

Cowardice of the Captain of a Life-Saving Station—A Curious Coincidence of Death.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

NEW YORK, February 6.—The schooner James E. Kelsey, Captain J. Wheatton, Jr., arrived in this port from Wilmington, N. C., having on board the second mate, John Christman, and two seamen, the sole survivors of the crew of the schooner Allie R. Chester, hailing from New York, which had become disabled during a gale encountered on a trip from Charleston to Barron Island with phosphates, and struck on the outer edge of the Diamond Reef, fifteen miles southeast of Cape Hatteras, January 20th. Captain Ingersoll of the Chester, First Mate Weels, the cook and two seamen were drowned. The survivors were forty-seven hours lashed to a stump of the mizzen mast before they were discovered by Captain Wheatton of the schooner Kelsey. Their rescue was accomplished with great difficulty. Twenty-four hours before they were rescued they sighted a life-boat putting out from shore toward them, but it returned without coming near. Captain Daly, of the life-saving station, claims that he put out toward the wreck, but, seeing no signs of life on board, returned, not caring to risk his boat and crew for nothing. Daly has since resigned, however. A coincidence in connection with this story is the fact that it was discovered to-day that at the very time when Captain Ingersoll was spending his last moments lashed to the rigging of his vessel, his wife was dying of consumption at Woodmunkville, N. J.

HALF-DROWNED AND FROZEN.

The Terrible Experience of Two Deserting Sailors.

NEW YORK, February 6.—The Fall River steamer, Old Colony, to-day brought in a sailor named Leander Kaldoon, badly frozen, and the corpse of another man, whom Kaldoon knew only as "Bill." Kaldoon says he sailed from New York on the morning of the 4th on the schooner J. F. Kearnes, Captain McDonald, for South Africa. Before sailing, and after the voyage began, the crew were treated most atrociously by the captain and mate, and resolved to make a raft from some planking and logs on deck and desert at night. Finding they could not make a raft large enough to hold all four of the sailors they drew lots to see which two should escape. Kaldoon and "Bill" won the prize and launched the raft at 11 o'clock last night. They expected to make shore, but the wind shifted and carried them out in the middle of the Sound. A heavy sleet storm prevailed, and they were washed overboard. At 8:30 o'clock this morning the Old Colony picked them up. Restoratives were used, and the half-frozen men were rolled in hot blankets and rubbed. "Bill" was beyond human aid. He gasped a few times and then died. Kaldoon is getting along well. Captain Hammond says the men were encased in ice when rescued, and he had no idea of saving the lives of either of them.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

A Terrible Scene Made by a Lover at the Morgue.

CHICAGO, February 6.—This morning at the Hotel Cortland a man named W. S. Bradley shot and killed his wife, then suicided. Both parties are well connected. Bradley was a nephew of W. H. Bradley, clerk of the Federal Court. Mrs. Bradley's maiden name was Watkins, and, it is said, is related to Hon. Henry Watterson. Both were employed as reporters on a morning paper. Mrs. Bradley is given an excellent reputation, but her husband was a black sheep. He got out of the penitentiary a few months ago, where he served a sentence for embezzlement. Ever since he has been insanely jealous, particularly of Frederick Mann, of H. V. Mann & Co., linen drapers, who, while Bradley was in the penitentiary, was in the habit of escorting her when fulfilling night assignments. He was evidently very much in love with her, for when the news of her death became known he went to the morgue and made a scene, repeatedly kissing the cold and bloody lips of the dead woman, and heaping imprecations on the head of her dead husband.

A Grand Union Depot.

DENVER, Col., February 6.—An important meeting of the Presidents and General Managers of the lines running into Pueblo, was held this afternoon in this city. The representatives were General Manager C. F. Meek, of the Fort Worth; General Manager S. T. Smith, of the Rio Grande; President R. R. Cable, of the Rock Island; Vice-President Clark, of the Missouri Pacific, and General Manager Robinson, of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe. The object of the meeting was to hold a conference regarding the new Union Depot at Pueblo, which these companies propose to erect. At the conclusion of the meeting it was announced that they had adopted plans, and work would be begun immediately. The structure will be red sandstone, and will cost between $200,000 and $300,000.

The Winter Wheat Millers.

INDIANAPOLIS, February 6.—The winter wheat millers of the Central and Northwestern States closed their convention to-day, after forming a national association for "the protection of their interests, etc." A committe was appointed to visit Washington and endeavor to secure such action of Congress as will result in reciprocal tariff duties between the United States and the countries that use American flour. A resolution was adopted requesting the winter wheat millers to run their mills during February to only 50 per cent of their capacity.

A Forger Captured.

EL PASO, Tex., February 6.—Ford, the Peoria forger, was captured at Tucson last night on the east-bound Southern Pacific train which arrived here to-day. A fellow-passenger, a friend of an Illinois banker, had Ford's photograph in his pocket, and recognized him on the train. He notified conductor Gillespie, who wired to Tucson to have the arrest made. Ford offered Gillespie five hundred dollars to release him. He was travelling with a woman, who continued on the train to Benson, but returned to Tucson from there.

The Blizzard's Breath.

MARQUETTE, Mich., February 6.—Winter has set in with terrible earnestness at last. A blizzard has prevailed all over the upper peninsula. Traffic has been delayed on some of the railway lines. Swamps are freezing up fast, thus facilitating lumber hauling.

Cinching the "White Caps."

INDIANAPOLIS, February 6.—The State Senate to-day passed the "White-Cap" bill, making it a riotous conspiracy for three or more persons to combine for the purpose of doing any unlawful act while wearing white-caps, or being otherwise disguised, and fixing the penalty at a fine of $2,000 and imprisonment in the State prison for not more than ten, nor less than two years.

Brutal Indian Murderers.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., February 6.—A horrible murder was committed at Little Current, Ont., 150 miles east of here, on Saturday last. Christiana Togosh, a half-breed, was outraged by five Indians and then literally torn to pieces. Two of the murderers were brought to Canada Soo this morning and lodged in jail.

A Story Doubted.

ALBANY, February 6.—A dispatch from Gloversville says the story of the Pine Lake disaster, reported last night, is generally discredited there, but that no definite information can be obtained, as the blizzard has interrupted all communication with Pine Lake.

A Lost Leg Appraised.

PHILADELPHIA, February 6.—The trial of the case of Charles Orbann against the Philadelphia Traction Company street car line, for personal injuries received, terminated to-day in a verdict for the plaintiff for $20,000. Orbann was a newsboy, and was pushed or fell from the car and had his leg cut off.

STATE LEGISLATION.

Petitions for and Against the Proposed London Exhibit.

SACRAMENTO, February 6.—The Senate met at 11 o'clock. Heacock, of Santa Barbara, offered a resolution that the Senate adjourn at noon in respect to the Governor Bartlett memorial ceremonies.

Caminetti desired to convene again at 7:30 this evening for reading of bills. Both propositions were agreed to.

Two petitions were placed on file. One was from citizens of Sacramento and one from San Francisco advocating the London exhibition scheme.

Following are some of the new bills introduced:

By Welch, of San Francisco, authorizing the seizure and confiscation of real and personal property of Chinese found residing in California in violation of the Scott Exclusion bill.

By Pinder, of San Francisco, preventing discrimination by water companies in charging consumers.

By Murphy of San Francisco, embodying suggestions of the Republican and Democratic County Committees to prevent fraudulent elections.

By Goucher of Mariposa, appropriating $25,000 for the purchase of Hill's painting, "Driving the Last Spike."

By Moffitt, to arrange for a vote of the people to ascertain the opinion on the Scott Exclusion bill. Recess.

THE ASSEMBLY.

SACRAMENTO, February 6.—The Assembly this morning made the Senate bill, appropriating $50,000 to employ counsel to go to Washington to defend the Scott exclusion act, the special order for to-morrow morning.

Edwards of Los Angeles presented a petition signed by citizens of Los Angeles county praying for the passage of the bill creating the county of Orange.

Ostrom of Yuba offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Assembly take a recess at 11:30 A. M. to 1:30 P. M., to give time to prepare this chamber for the memorial services for our late Governor Bartlett.

The Mayor of San Francisco presented a petition signed by leading firms in San Francisco favoring the passage of the bill appropriating $250,000 for the proposed London exhibition.

Hart, of Sacramento, presented a petition signed by residents of this city relating to the same subject.

Coombs, of Napa, offered a concurrent resolution as follows: "Resolved by the Assembly of California, the Senate concurring, that our Representatives in Congress be requested and Senators be instructed to use their endeavors to have the present system of postal service changed in such a way as to reduce the cost of postage stamps." Adopted.

Bills were introduced as follows:

By McCarthy, to ascertain and express the will of the people of the State upon the subject of the repeal of the so-called "Scott Chinese Exclusion Act."

By Ragsdale, amending sections of the code relating to roads and highways.

By Dibble, amending sections of the Political Code relating to elections.

By Hart, amending the act authorizing the appointment of certain State capitol employes.

By Dobbins, adding a new section to the Penal Code relative to the prohibition and prevention of the use of all acids in the manufacture of hermetically sealed tin cans used for canning purposes.

By Young, amending the act incorporating the city of San Diego.

By Reagan, to create a police relief and pension fund in the several counties and cities of the State.

The following bills were passed: Assembly bill to protect registration of thoroughbred cattle and other domestic animals; Assembly bill to provide for revision of the records of California volunteers and to authorize the Superintendent of State Printing to print, bind, and issue the same; Senate bill concerning the crime of obtaining money or property by false pretenses. Recess was taken.

AN ENGLISH SPY.

Dr. DeCaron Acted in That Capacity Here.

UNION SOLDIER AND FENIAN.

Alexander Sullivan Shows Him Up and Flatly Contradicts His Testimony.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

CHICAGO, February 6.—Alexander Sullivan, ex-President of the Irish National League of America, speaking to-day in regard of the statements made about him by Dr. Le Caron before the Parnell Commission in London yesterday, said he knew Le Caron very slightly. The latter had represented himself to Sullivan as a Frenchman with an Irish wife and most ardent Irish sympathies. He claimed to have served in the Union army and afterwards in the Fenian organization. Mr. Sullivan believed there was not a particle of foundation for Le Caron's statements about Parnell's expressions of sympathy with any method, except open public agitation, to aid Ireland. The whole story was another desperate effort to give some color or excuse for continuing the case against Parnell. The Evening News declares Le Caron served in the Union Army during the war, and intimates that both then and during his connection with the Fenians he acted as a spy for the British Government. He had an office in this city on La Salle avenue, but left for Europe about Christmas.

PIOUS AND PATRIOTIC.

The Bereaved Sovereign's Proclamation to His People.

VIENNA, February 6.—The Emperor Francis Joseph, in an autograph letter to Premier Von Taafe, orders publicity given to the following proclamation: "My people: Overwhelmed with deep grief, I humbly bow my head before the inscrutable decree of Divine Providence, appealing with my people to the Almighty to give me strength so that I may not falter in the conscientious performance of my duties as ruler, but may keep before my eyes that course of steadfast adherence which assures for the commonwealth the blessings of peace. It has been a consolation to me, during these days of bitter woe, to know that I was upheld by the heartfelt sympathy of my people, of which I have received from all sides the most touching tokens."

The proclamation further expresses the heartfelt thanks of the Emperor and Empress and their sorely stricken daughter-in-law for the sympathy accorded them, and concludes by asking God's help in the future, and the co-operation of the Austrian subjects with their ruler, to secure the welfare of the fatherland.

In Collision and Sunk.

LONDON, February 6.—The British bark Largo Bay, bound for Auckland, was towed to Spithead to-day in a sinking condition. She reports that on Monday night last she was in collision with an unknown four-masted steamer off Beachy Head, and that the steamer was sunk with all on board. The seamen of the Largo Bay say they are certain that the lost steamer carried passengers, and they estimate that the crew and passengers together numbered at least 100 persons. The steamer sunk eight minutes after the collision occurred.

John Bull Disgusted.

LONDON, February 6.—The Daily News, commenting on the Samoan situation, says: "Prince Bismarck has disregarded his obligations to Great Britain in a most flagrant way, and Count Herbert Bismarck's ostentatious friendliness for America is inadequate to recompense us for our Australian colonies. A policy of subservience to Germany which procures us no appreciable advantages is neither a triumph of diplomatic skill nor a solace to National pride."

Rudolph's Request to the Pope.

BERLIN, February 6.—A dispatch to the Frankfurt Zeitung from Rome says: In January Rudolph addressed himself directly to the Pope, without his father's knowledge, to ask his assistance in obtaining a divorce and authority to marry again. The Pope sent the letter to the Emperor, and the result was a serious explanation between father and son, which probably unhinged the latter.

Pendleton Weak, But Working.

BERLIN, February 6.—The report that Judge Lambert Tree, United States Minister to Russia, is acting as the representative of Minister Pendleton, is without foundation. Pendleton, though ailing, is constantly at work. He has not been required to call at the foreign office for some time.

PINCHING PARNELL.

Damaging Evidence Adduced Against the League.

ARMED REBELLION ADVOCATED.

Some Light Let Into the Mystery of the London Bridge Explosion. Dynamite Warfare.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

LONDON, February 6.—Parnell was present at the session of the Commission to-day. He held a lively conversation with Michael Davitt. Beach, who is also known as Le Caron, continued his evidence. He detailed a conversation which he had with Alexander Sullivan in June, 1881, regarding a proposed alliance of the different Irish organizations, in which Sullivan said that no radical change could be effected until they had a change of representatives on this side of the water, which would be very soon. Sullivan, referring to a visit to Ireland, which he contemplated making, said he could not think of allowing Parnell to pay his expenses, as doing so would place Parnell in a false position. Sullivan bitterly opposed the discussion of this matter in open convention on the ground that it would leak out and compromise the Parnellite party.

Witness said John O'Connor, an agent employed for carrying arms to Ireland, attended a convention as a representative of the Supreme Council of the Irish Republican Brotherhood.

The court overruled an objection in behalf of Parnell that this evidence was irrelevant.

Witness said he saw Lomasney two days before Lomasney left America for the purpose of carrying out the plan of campaign by explosives. Lomasney never returned, and the organization has ever since supported his family and father. Witness believed Lomasney and his brother Michael perished in the London Bridge explosion.

Witness continued the testimony, telling of his attendance at the Chicago convention in January, 1882. He told of its organization, workings, etc. During the testimony Parnell appeared in the courtroom. His entrance created a sensation. The witness looked steadily at Parnell several minutes. Continuing, witness said he had copies of all documents of the Brotherhood to the English Government at the time.

Witness said Alexander Sullivan, of Chicago, once President of the Land League, went to England in 1882 and remained two months. After his return witness conversed with Sullivan about plans for future warfare against England. Witness said Sullivan told him that in future men would be chosen to do the work who did not exceed orders like Gallagher, who gave himself away, enabling Jim McDermott to get information. Sullivan said they would continue to send men to England to carry on an active dynamite war. Witness further said, that in a circular, issued in 1883, every branch of the organization was commanded to endeavor to perfect itself in some particular branch of warfare. An open convention of the League met in Philadelphia, April 16, 1883. Witness attended as delegate of the Braidwood, Ill., camp. He also represented the League. Egan did not attend the secret meetings, but he requested witness to inform him of all the details of the discussions, and declared that the programme was satisfactory to all Nationalists. Chief Justice Hannen asked what he meant by "programme," and witness replied that it meant a united programme for the future. Witness said he saw Eagan constantly during the convention. After the convention the Land League became the National League, of which Sullivan was President. Thomas Brennan attended secret meetings which it would have been impossible for him to have attended unless he had been a member of the "I. R. B." or "M. B." Attorney-General Webster received some accounts, including the items $27,102 sent to Eagan in Paris and $12,903 sent to Parnell. He also quoted from a cable dispatch sent by Parnell to Mooney April 26, 1883. In this dispatch Parnell asks Mooney to present his, (Parnell's) "views to the convention and advise the delegates to frame a platform that will enable the Nationalists to continue to accept American assistance, while avoiding offering England a pretext for the suppression of the Nationalist movement, which he says is the only means for preserving the unity of the Irish movement in Ireland and America. He expressed himself as perfectly confident that the Irish cause will continue to advance by the exercise of prudence, moderation and firmness.

Witness, resuming his testimony, said that the circular issued September 6, 1883, said that the executive was unable to see its way to armed insurrection until England should become involved in war. In the meantime, a secret war would be carried on. All informers, the circular said, were foredoomed. While in Milwaukee, Sullivan said to him that the operations were entirely in the hands of the revolutionary directory of their own organization, but there had been some lack of courage shown, and the directory had found it impossible to get men from the home organization to do the work. Sullivan said that in future every-one chosen should be without family and be an old and tried member. Before departing on an expedition every man would be instructed in the use and management of explosives. At the end of 1883 there was a split in the organization, the seceders retaining the old name, while the others, under Sullivan's leadership, founded a new organization entitled "U. S." The executive was reduced to three members, their badge being a triangle. Witness and a majority of the members of his camp joined the "U. S."

A "CHESTNUT" FOUND.

It Took a Chicago Reporter to Come West and Unearth It.

CHICAGO, February 6.—The Tribune recently sent a reporter to Victoria, B. C., and this morning devotes an entire page to his report of the condition of affairs there. The report deals at length with smuggling operations across the border. It declares the United States is cheated out of millions every year by organized bands of opium smugglers; that many federal customs officials on the border are corrupted by rhem, while others are so stupid as to be useless.

The correspondent further declares that the laws against Chinese immigration are flagrantly violated under the very nose of Federal officials. Chinese women in herds are smuggled across the border and sold into slavery in the United States. In general it is asserted that the people of the United States haven't the slightest conception of the brazen lawlessness that exists on the northern frontier.

A Wheat-Exporting Firm.

CHICAGO, February 6.—A special from Minneapolis says: The efforts of F. H. Peavey & Co., of this city, to meet the wants of the great wheat-growing sections of Western Montana and Washington Territory, have come to a head in the incorporation of the Pacific Coast Elevator Company. A terminal elevator, with a capacity of 750,000 bushels, is to be built at once at Portland, and a score or more of country houses all along the line of the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company's road, each with a capacity of 25,000 to 75,000 bushels.

It is planned to have everything in running order by August, when the firm will commence exporting.

All shipments will be made in sacks to Liverpool, via Cape Horn. This will revolutionize the wheat business in these territories. Hitherto shipments have all been made to San Francisco. Now Portland will become the key of the situation.

A Vagabond Vates.

BUFFALO, February 6.—It transpires that three months ago a tramp near here exhibited an infernal machine for making sure the destruction of a building by fire in which it exploded. He declared there would be the biggest fire in Buffalo in its history within ninety days, followed by a big strike in New York. Then half of New York would be burned and there would be a big fire in Chicago. The first two have already occurred. It is said the late Buffalo fire was preceded by an explosion.

The Knights Knocked Out.

NEW YORK, February 6,—The strikers are flocking to the various street car headquarters applying for work. In all cases they are required to sign a paper declaring they will no longer be subject to orders of any labor organizations. The collapse of the strike is a very heavy blow to the Knights of Labor.

Stuck on Oklahoma.

KANSAS CITY, February 6.—The Oklahoma craze has struck this city, and everybody, big and little, is discussing the advisability of joining the boom and making a raid into the promised land, since the favorable action of Congress.

Invitation Accepted.

WASHINGTON, February 6.—The President has approved the joint resolution accepting the invitation of the German Government to the United States to become a party to the International Geodetic Association.

Cure for Piles.

Itching piles are known by moisture like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching after getting warm. This form as well as blind, bleeding and protruding piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, absorbing the tumors, allaying the intense itching and effecting a permanent cure. 50 cents. DRUNKENNESS
Or the Liquor Habit Positively Cured by Administering Dr. Haines' Golden Specific.
It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea without the knowledge of the person taking it; is absolutely harmless and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been made temperate men who have taken Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge, and to-day believe they quit drinking of their own free will. IT NEVER FAILS. The system once impregnated with the Specific it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist. For sale by R. W. Ellis & Co. Druggists, 27 S. This is the latest and greatest improvement ever made, and is superior to all others. Every buyer of an Electric Belt wants the latest—this he will find the Owen Belt. It differs from all others, as it is a Battery Belt, and not a chain, voltaic or wire belt. It will cure all complaints curable by electricity. The electric current can be Tested by anyone before it is applied to the body, and is worn only six to ten hours daily. If you will examine this belt you will buy no other, as it is vastly superior to all others now offered for sale. To show the Entire Confidence we have in our Electro-Galvanic Belts and Appliances we will send our No. 4 Belt complete to responsible parties on thirty days' trial, and if it does not prove to be and do what we represent, we will refund the money. Send 4c postage for our free illustrated pamphlet of 128 pages; also for a pair of Dr. Owen's Electric Insoles, price $1.

UNPARALLELED SUCCESS OF THE Grand Republic Cigarros and Grand Republic Buffos.

Some time ago we asked the smokers of this hemisphere to try our famous GRAND REPUBLIC CIGARROS, a 10-cent cigar for 5 cents. We now beg leave to thank the millions of smokers, who have enjoyed many times many millions of our GRAND REPUBLIC CIGARROS for their hearty support, believing we have given you, in the GRAND REPUBLIC CIGARRO, positive proof of our ABILITY and DETERMINATION to place within your reach the best for the least money.

GRAND REPUBLIC BUFFOS, 4 FOR 10 CENTS, guaranteed all Havana long filler, with fine Sumatra wrapper, sufficing for a full twenty minutes' smoke. The Manufacturer asserts, without possibility of practical contradiction, that the GRAND REPUBLIC BUFFOS are beyond comparison the very finest cigars yet produced in this market at anything like the price. Like their prototypes, the GRAND REPUBLIC CIGARROS, so popular, they are simply unique. Like them, they can be imitated as to looks and packages. These are simple. But when it comes to material and quality, and the essentials of a real, high grade cigar, suited to critics, at a low price, the BUFFOS, like our CIGARROS, stand PRE-EMINENTLY INIMITABLE.

Now, beware of COUNTERFEITS and IMITATIONS, as they will surely come through the unprincipled small manufacturer and jobber. We have warned the public against them, and will vigorously prosecute all imitations or infringements upon our style of packages, Red Seal and Veneer Package.

EXCHANGE REVIEW.

NEW YORK, February 6—The stock market to-day was more active, with a stronger tone almost throughout, and the result of the day's operations is to leave most of the list materially higher than last evening. The strangers were a weak spot in the list, and Burlington and Quincy and Rock Island especially showed a marked weakness and declined materially, though a portion of the loss was made up toward the close of business. The market closed active and strong, generally at the best prices of the day.

CHARGED WITH ARSON.

Their Saloon in Wilmington Burned in January.

A. D. Proch and A. Williams, two saloon men of Wilmington, were taken before Justice Savage yesterday on a charge of arson. The case against them was worked up by Detective Lawson.

On the 9th of last month a saloon owned by Proch went up in smoke. It was well insured, and rumors were very common that the proprietor was too well satisfied with the apparent calamity that had overtaken him. The insurance companies, who have a good many such cases on their hands in these days, put the matter in charge of the Lawson Agency. It was found that Proch had frequently talked of the destruction of the saloon as a desirable thing, and Lawson has now in his possession affidavits from two men who say that Proch offered to pay them well if they would undertake the job.

The men will be examined on the 14th of the month. Their bail was fixed at $2,000 each.

Special Announcement.

Excursion tickets for grand excursion to Hotel del Coronado February 9th will be good to return on train leaving San Diego at 7:30 A. M., Tuesday, the 12th inst., if endorsed at Hotel del Coronado, D street office, or city railroad office, San Diego, thus giving all an opportunity to attend the grand Modini concert.

AN UGLY DISCOVERY.

A Report That Should Be Read.

"A recent analyzation in Philadelphia by a celebrated chemist of ten popular brands of sarsaparilla discloses the astonishing fact that these ten samples of blood purifiers (?) contained in the aggregate sixteen different minerals, eleven of which were active poisons. Iodide of potash was discovered in every sample, mercury was found in all but two, while arsenic existed in six of the ten brands. Not one brand was the pure article."

A reporter took the above clipping to E. W. Joy, the manufacturer of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. Mr. Joy exhibited no surprise. He said druggists knew it. He said he long ago saw the crying need for a safe and absolutely pure vegetable preparation of Sarsaparilla, hence his was named Joy's vegetable sarsaparilla because it contained nothing but pure syrup of sarsaparilla, combined with the pure juices of California's vegetable alteratives. Unlike potash sarsaparillas, it does not force impurities through the skin but stimulates the various secretive organs thereby correcting functional derangement and eliminating all impurities through the natural channels.—San Francisco Examiner.
